

JUBILEE OF MERCY

Welcome to A&B eNews

Welcome to this further edition of the A&B eNewsletter. There will be no further eNewsletter in August and it will resume again in September.

There is a vacancy for new part-time PA to the Financial Secretary of the Diocese. For more information see the Diocesan Website.

One thing I would like to highlight is that because of continuing interest in the Parish Portal there will be a further information session on Thursday 18 August from 1.45pm at DABCEC in Crawley. Parish Portal is an affordable, high quality website builder backed by the Diocese which allows Parishes, with the support of the website company all interactive, to build an online presence easily. There are still places available. For more information see the Parish Portal website. You can book online via the Diocesan Website.

There are continue to be a number of other Year of Mercy events taking place in the Diocese which you can see below and further information on the Year of Mercy can also be found on the Diocesan website.

Finally please pray for Fr William Janes, aged 92 who died on 3rd August. His funeral will take place at 12 Noon on Thursday 25 August (vigil night before 7pm) at Sacred Heart, Norton Road, Hove BN3 3BF. May he rest in peace.

With every prayer and blessing for the summer,
Mark Woods - Communications Officer

Local & Parish Events and Information in the Diocese

Franciscan Celebration: The Southern Region Order of Franciscans Secular has organised a day of reflection for all with a 'Franciscan heart' on the San Damiano Cross to be led by Fr Desmond Pawley OFM Conventual at Holly Barn, Winterhsall Estate, Bramley, Guildford GU5 0LR on Saturday 13 August from 10.30am-4pm. Bring a packed lunch. For more information contact Jennie McManus on 01483 203642 or email her.

Mother Teresa in Surrey: An evening at Christ the Prince of Peace Church, Weybridge, 7.30pm-9.00pm, on 2 September in anticipation of the Canonisation of Blessed Mother Teresa of Calcutta on 4 September in Rome. You are invited to remember that this saint was present in Surrey, with memories of people who walked with her from the 1950's onwards. She visited St John the Baptist School in Woking and 2,000 young people from Catholic schools across the Diocese gathered in Guildford Cathedral to hear her speak. These memories have been put together by researcher Kate Wilkinson, with exclusive footage and memories of these events. There will be a first time showing of this documentary to commemorate Mother Teresa's canonisation. If you are unable to come, a booklet has been produced called "Mother Teresa in Surrey" which will be distributed in Surrey parishes over the canonisation weekend. This project has been commissioned and inspired by Mgr Barry Wymes, who organised Mother Teresa's visit to Guildford in 1974. Please contact Adam Simon on abcej.simon@gmail.com if you want further details about this event.

Symposium on Mother Teresa: On Sunday 4th September, the day of Mother Teresa's canonisation, the parish of Knaphill will be holding a symposium in honour of the new saint. The evening will begin with Vespers and Benediction at 6pm, which will be followed in the parish Hall by a series of interventions by people who knew the saint: one who worked with her as a schoolgirl in India; a couple who knew her in the 1970's; Dr Aloysius Amaladoss who met her in London in the 1980's, and Fr Alexander Lucie-Smith, who saw her in Rome and will make a few theological reflections. The evening will end by 8pm. All are welcome to attend. St Hugh of Lincoln is in Victoria Road, Knaphill, Woking, GU21 2AA.

Event and Mass to Celebrate Canonisation of Mother Teresa: Heavens Road Catholic Online Radio are proud to announce a 12 hour T.V. celebration of the life of Mother Teresa work and love for the poor sick and less fortunate. In Arundel and Brighton Diocese Fr Kevin Dring at The Sacred Heart Church, Norton Rd, Hove BN3 3BF will celebrate Midday Mass highlighting the work of Saint Vincent De Paul Society in helping the very people Mother Teresa brought to our attention. Martin Brown of CAFOD will sing during the Mass and talk about their work to help those finding their selves so often desperately struggling to survive due to circumstances beyond their control. Cameras WILL BROADCAST LIVE from Sacred Heart Parish Hove the 12 Noon Mass on www.heavensroadfm.com/mtc.

CAFOD Local Meetings: The Diocese of Arundel & Brighton CAFOD office has arranged a series of meetings to meet with local parish volunteers. The dates and venues are:
